

Becoming Emily

A portrait of Emily Dickinson through her poems and letters

DVD release Summer 2010 PAL or NTSC Running time: 1 hr 20 mins

Emily Dickinson's stature as a major poet has taken many years to emerge. This film imagines Dickinson's thoughts in 1885, the year before her death, as she turns through a family album.

Poems and letter extracts offer insight into a private world where we encounter the poet's views on nature, love and death, as well as her passions, joys and fears.

Emily Dickinson is played by Nicola Howard

Other parts played by Lauren Carter, Frank Ward, Lisbet Ward, Charlotte Rose, Georgia Godden and Tim Slind.

Co-directed by Norman Worrall and Marcus Korhonen
Shot on location in Kent, England

Letters and poems are used by permission of Harvard University Press, publishers of THE LETTERS OF EMILY DICKINSON edited by Thomas H. Johnson, and THE POEMS OF EMILY DICKINSON, edited by Thomas H. Johnson.

Images are used by permission of the Houghton Library; Amherst College; Mount Holyoke College; The Jones Library, Amherst; Yale University Library; Brown University Library; Monson Free Library, and The Atlantic magazine.

Becoming Emily DVD is available at www.amazon.co.uk

Sample poems for viewing on YouTube:

I stepped from Plank to Plank; Out of sight? What of that; I reckon – when I count at all

A Visible Music Production